"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, JUNE 26th, 1818.

The Thirtieth Drawing

Of the Medical College Lottery will be on Thursday the 9th of July, on which day the first drawn number will be entitled to the brilliant Prize of Twenty Thousand Dollars!! After which the Lottery will commence to draw four times per week, thus bringing out the two great Capitals within a very short time of each other; it will be seen that the most important part of the scheme is now at hand,—besides which, the floating Capital Prize of Ten Thousand Dollars is still undrawn, and the gain of the wheel, upwards of Twenty Five Thousand Dollars!!—As there are but few Tickets remaining, the price will in a few days be advanced; at the present rate of FIFTEEN DOLLARS, supplies should be taken, in order to be prepared with chances for the 20,000 Dollar Prize, to be drawn ON THURSDAY AFTER NEXT.—Recollect the attendant consequences of delay, and remember that the ticket which drew the Ten Thousand Dollar Prize on the 20th drawing remained unsold at this Office, and that ten minutes previous it might have become the property of some fortunate adventurer for the small sum of Fifteen Dollars.

ORDERS enclosing the Cash or prize tickets (post paid) will, as usual, meet with the most prompt attention, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

The ship Woodrop Sims arrived at this port on Wednesday last, in the short passage of 55 days, from Buenos Ayres—Capt. Jenkins informs that the U. S. frigate CONGRESS was to sail from that port about the first of May—The British brig Deveron, Wilson, from Baltimore, had arrived. Business was dull, and many vessels of all nations lying there—several vessels from England were fitting out as cruizers. The brig Aerial, from Baltimore, had arrived at Valpariso; she was very near being taken by the Spanish frigate Vaganza, had she not been assisted by the boats of the U. S. sloop of war Ontario.—Buenos Ayres was all rejoicing in consequence of the splendid victory gained over the Royalists in Chili, which news reached Buenos Ayres a few days before the W. S. sailed—upwards of 1000 cannons were fired on the occasion, and the city brilliantly illuminated for three nights. Capt. Jenkins has brought papers detailing the particulars. The Peruvian army of 7000 men was totally destroyed, all killed or wounded, and no resources left to raise another. The loss of the Patriots was considerable, 1000 killed—Lima is doubtless in possession of the Chilian army.

The Crops.—A respectable farmer from the Eastern Shore of Maryland, informs us that the crops of grain never promised a more plentiful harvest than at the present season—Tel.

Our readers are doubtless impatient for further accounts of Gen. Jackson's movements; but we have nothing further to offer them. No direct intelligence has reached the seat of government from Gen. Jackson's head quarters since he took up the line of march from St. Mark's. We have thought proper to notice this absence of information, to account for the silence we have observed on the subject, since announcing the other day the reported capture of Pensacola. This report reached the city from two different sources, remote from each other, and nearer to the scene of action than to this city. We have little doubt of the correctness of the fact of Gen. J's having entered Pensacola; and it is equally probable, if he entered it at all, it was by assault, as it is not to be supposed the Spanish authorities would have given up so important a post without at least a shew of resistance.

The motives of this step General Jackson's dispatches will disclose. It is presumed such a measure was not in the contemplation of the government, although it may necessarily have resulted from the discretion vested in the commanding officer to take such lawful steps as the safety of the frontier might appear to require. If the Indians in arms against us, led the way to Pensacola, there can be no doubt of Gen. Jackson's being justified in following and dislodging them.—Nat. Int.

We understand that the Mint in this city has lately coined, and has now nearly ready for delivery four hundred thousand quarter dollars!!!
